Senior Lecturer/Associate Professor/Professor Post in Afrikaans and Netherlandic Studies in the School of Languages and Literatures

All academics are responsible for the dissemination of knowledge (teaching and learning), creation of knowledge (research) and community engagement, recognising that there are differences in the execution of these responsibilities within the various departments and Faculties. Academics are also expected to assume some administrative, management and/or leadership duties at the departmental, Faculty and/or University level, and contribute to their profession.

Requirements:
A PhD in Afrikaans or Afrikaans and Dutch Studies or a cognate discipline. This may be in the field of either language or literature, but a background in both areas will be a strong recommendation. Candidates must have experience in teaching and researching in the disciplines of Afrikaans literature and other areas within the discipline, e.g. language practice, applied language studies, linguistics, etc.).

The candidate will be expected to play a key role in a Section that is committed to ongoing development and revision of its curriculum to meet the demands of a diverse student population in a dynamic and transforming higher education context.

VERY IMPORTANT: Applications should be submitted online by accessing the link: https://www.ru.ac.za/jobs/publishedvacancies/

Candidates should submit all the documents (CV, Letter of Motivation, Application Form, Qualifications). Failure to submit such documentation will result in an application not being considered.

The selection process and full minimum requirements for this post is contained in the above link.

Please note that this appointment will be made in line with the requirements of the Employment Equity Act of RSA and the University’s recruitment and selection policies and equity strategies. The initial focus will be on equity candidates. An employment check will be conducted on successful candidates.

If you have any questions or experience challenges with the system, please contact Ms Ntosh Gongqa on 046 603 8616 or Ms Shannon Thurston on 046 6037036.

All applications will be treated in strict confidence. The University reserves the right not to proceed with the filling of the post. An application in itself does not entitle the applicant to an interview. Please apply online by accessing the Rhodes University Website.

Closing Date: 08 June 2020

If you are not contacted within 30 days from the closing date, please consider your application unsuccessful.
